

Ashley Burgess

Ashley Burgess is a proud Métis, who has resided in Southampton for 33 years. Ashley is currently employed by Bruce Power where she is a member of the aboriginal group.

Ashley is married and has two daughters who attend G.C. Huston Public school. Ashley has been a strong participant in the Métis community since its beginning.

She is very engaged in the community, including; Annual Métis Rendezvous, previous council experience, meetings, workshops and gatherings. Ashley would like to be further involved in the present and future of the Historic Saugeen Métis community to ensure sustainability for future generations.

